

Howler MONKEY

AN ANIMAL
OF JURON

Projectkids®

ILLUSTRATED

BY:

MOCCAYU

EDITED

By

MAYRA SORIA

INFORMATION ABOUT: HOWLER MONKEY!

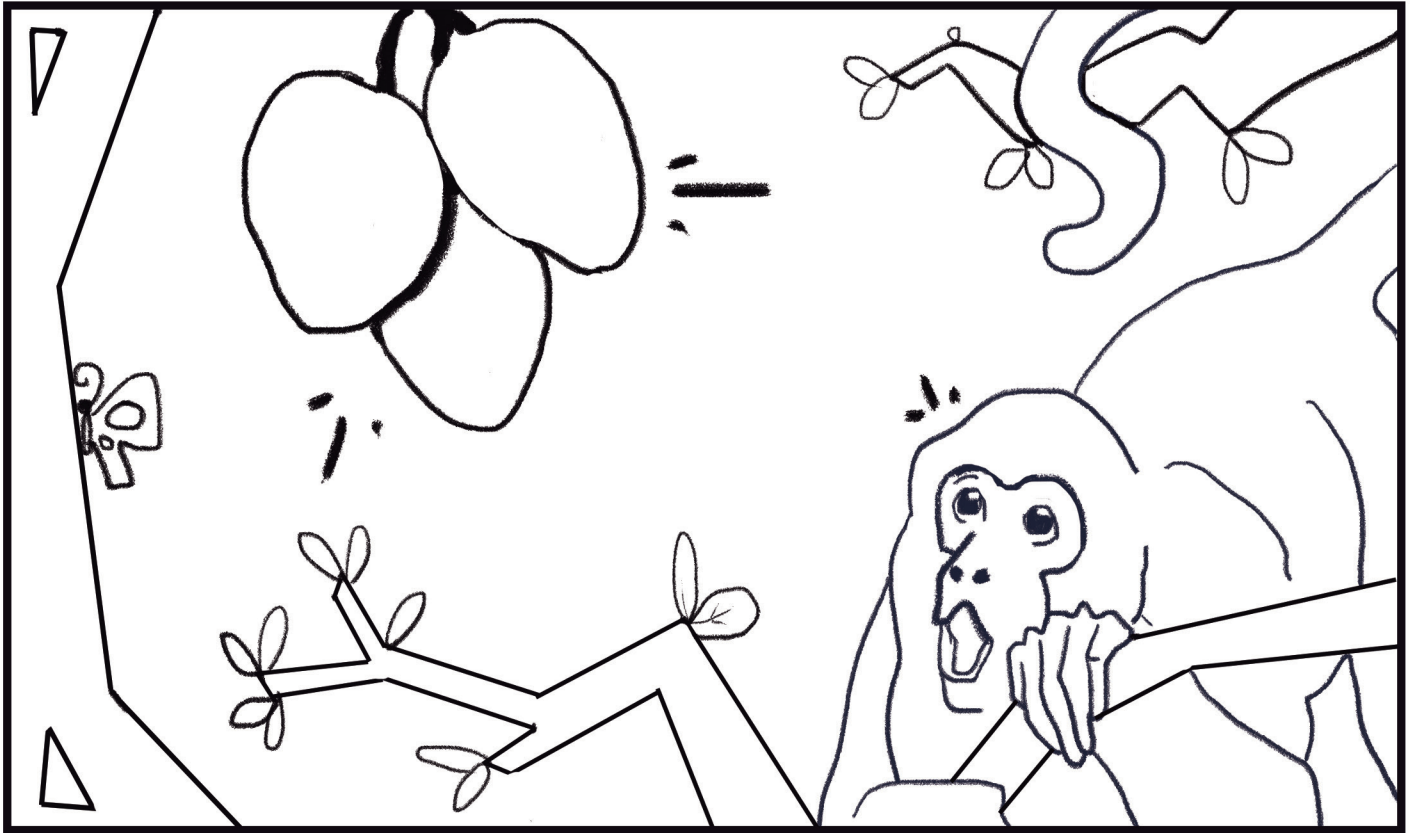

They feed on leaves, fruit and nectar.

They measure between 56 and 92 centimeters.

They are the largest monkeys in Latin America.

The howl is used to mark territory,
protect their food and females.
It can be heard up to five kilometers away.

Projectkids®

“Howler Monkey: An animal of Juron”

All rights are reserved to UAPK and its creators.
Any commercial use or plagiarism will be punished according to the law.

